Two Lyrics written by the Reverend John B Tabb

PS 2966
.C7

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS.

PS 2966

Chap. ..... Copyright No. .....

Shelf C7

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

Cuo Vyrus

Two Lyrics
written by the Rev erend John B Tabb

TS 2966
.C7

Received 9 June 1921

Library of Congress
TWO COPIES RECEIVED
JAN 16 1901
Copyright entry
Dec. 31, 1900
No. A 31707
SECOND COPY
JAN 21 1901

Copyright 1900 by the Craftsman's Guild

"Ad Astra"

ye the liues that far belouu. Upon your bounty up uard grouu? Or feel ye, as they touch the hem Of light their igno rance to cure,
That from your undiminished store Auie
ue has gone out to them?

Dusk

Alone
am I; but loneli
er. The twilight seems to be the lengthening shad ows leading her
To human sym pathy

NO WORD; but a mysterious dew
To feelings deep er far, The fash ions in the trem bling dew, And in the steadfast star

THIS BOOK was lettered & decorated
by Theodore Brown
Hapgood Jr & illuminated
by Emilie Marthecia Whitten for the Crafts man's Guild which is sues it in Boston in the month of December 1900

CCCLXXV copies were printed on hand-made paper and fifty copies on Japan paper: this is No. 374

Printed for The Craftsman's Guild by Carl H Heintzemann at The Heintzemann Press Boston

Jun - 28 1901

JAN 16 1901

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS
0 016 256 138 8